

ONE DEAD AS FIRE RAZES HOTEL

Arson Suspect Jailed

A 50-year-old carpenter was jailed here today on charges of murder and arson after a spectacular midnight fire killed one, injured two and destroyed Desert Rooms Hotel at 314 North Indian Avenue.

Jailed was Thomas W. Wells, whose last address was the gutted hotel. A resident here only 16 weeks, Wells was charged with suspicion of arson and murder.

THE DEAD MAN was tentatively identified as Jim Franey, age about 60, who was discovered in his bed where he had apparently been trapped by the blaze. He was sitting bolt upright when firemen brought the raging blaze under control and began checking rooms.

Injured were Raymond Combest, age unknown, pulled from the fire by firemen and revived after an hour with a resuscitator. He was treated for first and second degree burns at Desert Hospital and transferred to Riverside County Hospital. He is reported in critical condition. Mrs. Myra Dauber, who lived in the hotel tripped over a fire hose in her flight and was treated at Desert Hospital for hysteria and released.

A THIRD PERSON, identified as Herbert Dari, escaped injury when he was pulled from the flaming building against his protests. He pleaded to be left alone so he could sleep.

Residents of the hotel told firemen and police a bizarre story of a missing clock and a revenge motive by Wells.

Mrs. Dauber related that about 8:30 she and her husband heard an argument between Wells and hotel manager Ada Williams. She said that Wells threatened "if I don't get my clock back, it's going to cost you a lot more than a dozen new clocks."

MRS. WILLIAMS HAD a different story. She said that Wells had mentioned the clock but had checked out of the hotel at noon yesterday and she had not seen him since.

Wells, who was seen about a block and a half from the scene of the fire by Police Officer Matt Colac, was taken into custody about 1 a.m.

Det. Capt. Robert White said that police investigators and a pair of special investigators from the National Board of Fire Underwriters would undertake questioning Wells "later today." The captain said that the suspect has "admitted nothing."

THE HOTEL, which contained 16 rooms, was due to be torn down within a few weeks to make way for a new service station development on the property. Mrs. Williams told reporters last night that her lease had been cancelled in September and that she had been unable to get insurance on the building.

The alarm was turned in at approximately 11:15 p.m., and fire fighting apparatus from two Palm Springs stations answered the call. Flames leaped high into the sky, pushing clouds of black smoke into the air. Residents of the locale, some completely clothed and other with robes over night-clothes, hampered firemen as they unrolled hoses and chopped away at the burning building. Police found it almost impossible to hold back the spectators.

THE FIRE APPARENTLY broke out in a small shed attached to the north side of the building, or in the room just south of the shed. Within minutes the fire completely enveloped the entire structure.

'Fighters' Are Fighting For MRA

By GEORGE LAINE
Not one of the four looked like a fighter.

There was R. D. Mathur, an angular man with an almost boyish look about him. He fought for India's independence, sometimes with "means other than Gandhi."

There was Dau Nyein Tha, Burma's leading educator, who has been called "the pillar of the state" by Burma's prime minister, and whose soft-spoken conversation belies a rugged and intense determination.

AND THERE was Mr. and Mrs. Surya Sena, two Ceylonians whose store of knowledge on the music of India and Ceylon is seemingly endless. Their ability to use this knowledge in the battle for a better Asia—and a better world—seems unusual but not incongruous.

FIRE COMPLETELY destroyed the Desert Rooms hotel last night and was responsible for the death of one man, and injuries to at least two others. Pictured above, firemen Larry Deason and Don Brower train a fire hose on the blaze near where the fire had apparently started. At right, Fire Chief Bill Leno.

and charged with suspicion of arson and murder was Thomas W. Wells, 50, a Palm Springs carpenter, who reportedly started the fire because of a missing clock. (Desert Sun Photos).

$2-MILLION HOTEL PLANS ANNOUNCED

Plans for construction of a luxurious new $2 million East Palm Canyon Drive hotel were announced today by E. J. Burke, prominent Texas builder and developer.

Burke has completed negotiations for the purchase of an exclusive Deep Well area hotel site from Guy Anderson, of Palm Springs, Village real estate broker Ken Hanson reported today.

HANSON, who represented both parties in the transaction, said the property involved has 360 frontage feet on East Palm Canyon Drive and is the only remaining hotel site in the Deep Well area. He reported that Burke has already retained architects to design an ultra-modern, 83-unit hotel facility, including swimming pool, restaurant, bar and lounge.

Reputedly the largest builder and subdivision developer in Texas, Burke owns and operates 1,050 apartments in San Antonio and developed the exclusive Highland Hills subdivision, the largest in Texas, in that city.

BURKE ALSO owns a 20,000 acre cattle ranch in Oklahoma and has extensive holdings throughout the West.

Hanson said the total cost of land and development of the proposed Palm Canyon hotel is "in excess of $2 million."

Showdown on Germany, Berlin Appears Nearer

Fred Seaton Urges Hawaii Statehood

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton today urged quick congressional action to make Hawaii the 50th state to show this country "practices what we preach" about democracy.

Seaton was the first witness at a hearing by the Senate Territories Subcommittee in the administration drive to bring Hawaii into the union.

HE SAID IT was not a question of whether the Pacific island territory should become a state but when.

Seaton said Hawaii was politically and economically ready for statehood. He added that "Hawaii is a picture window of the Pacific through which the peoples of the East look into our American front door."

Other congressional news: DEPRESSED AREAS: Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) said the administration's $3-million dollar program would effectively aid areas plagued by chronic unemployment while staying within budget limits.

But Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) urged approval of a 389-million dollar measure patterned after one vetoed by President Eisenhower last year. The two senators testified before a Senate Banking Subcommittee considering the legislation.

RACKETS: Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy of the Senate Rackets Committee charged that officials of a Chicago coin machine association ran an "organized shakedown" of the juke box operators that brought in more than $100,000 a year.

Hyman Lerner, former general manager of the group, the Chicago Independent Amusement Association, invoked the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions.

L.A. CITY COUNCIL REJECTS HOTEL OCCUPANCY TAX
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The City Council Tuesday rejected a proposed 5 per cent hotel and motel occupancy tax by a vote of 7-5.

The council had re-opened debate on the proposed tax in its quest for new municipal revenue. The measure, as proposed three months ago, would have brought an additional two million dollars a year into the city treasury.

ZADDIE BUNKER ON 'THIS IS YOUR LIFE'

Zaddie Bunker, Palm Springs' "flying great-grandmother," left Palm Springs Airport at 2 p. m. today, bound for Lockheed Air Terminal at Burbank and "an aeronautical association meeting."

Instead, at 10 p. m., tonight, she will appear on Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life" program on Channel 4-KRCA.

THE DECEPTION, perpetrated by Forrest Bird and a host of other Villagers, appeared to be perfect as Mrs. Bunker climbed into Bird's twin-engine Piper Apache and taxied down the runway. The story for tonight's "This Is Your Life" program, authored by Desert Sun reporter Fred Weigel, includes bits and pieces of many phases of the life of the 71-year-old aviatrix. Weigel's three months of research included long hours of conversation with persons like Earle and Frances Strebe, Marjorie Rambeau Gudzger and with Zaddie's sisters, Lillie Goff and Henrietta Parker. The reporter's story was adapted for television by Janet Tighe, of Edward's staff.

MOST OF THOSE people will be on hand when Edwards' program takes to the air tonight. But there will be others, too. Persons whom she has not seen for decades will be on hand to greet the great-grandmother.

City councilmen have made arrangements with Carl Leserman and Frank Allen of the Palm Springs Television Corporation for installation of two television screens in council chambers tonight.

Ike Repeats

Dulles to Have 'Final' Decision

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower indicated today that after Secretary of State John Foster Dulles completes radiation treatment for cancer, they will confer on whether the cabinet officer wishes to continue on the job.

The President, at his news conference, emphasized again how- ever, that Dulles himself will make the decision.

Mayor Frank Bogert indicated today that he will recess the council meeting so that council members and audience may view Mrs. Bunker as she appears before more than 20 million viewers across the nation.

In addition, Village clubs and bistros will halt regularly scheduled entertainment to afford patrons the opportunity to watch Mrs. Bunker on television.

Flag Day Fete In San Luis

ENDS IN TRAGEDY
SAN LUIS, Mexico — (UPI) — A national flag day celebration south of here by 150 school children ended in tragedy Tuesday when a temporary stage and a brick wall collapsed, killing five children and seriously injuring 26 others.

One other child was reported near death. None of the children, aged from 9 to 12, escaped injury.

Hammaraskjold To Visit Moscow

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — (UPI) — Informed United Nations sources said today Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold has decided to visit Moscow in hopes his own "quiet diplomacy" might prevent a major crisis over Berlin.

Ike Cites Attitude of Khrushchev

United Press International
The East-West cold war crisis worsened on several fronts today. A showdown on the fate of Germany and Berlin seemed nearer. President Eisenhower told his Washington news conference that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's unyielding attitude lowers hopes for any really successful talks on the German and Berlin questions.

HE ALSO DISMISSED Khrushchev's suggestion for a Big Four summit conference by saying that such a meeting would do more harm than good unless there was some hope of accomplishing something in it beforehand.

The President said Khrushchev's rejection of the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on Berlin and Germany was not a hopeful development, particularly since it came at a time when British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is in Moscow trying to create a good atmosphere for negotiations.

EISENHOWER SAID the West had made plans to defend its position in Berlin, but he declined to disclose any details of the military planning involved. He said, however, that so far as the United States is concerned, any act of actual war would have to be started by someone else.

EIGHT-HOUR ARMED RAMPAGE ENDS IN ARREST TUESDAY

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — A 26-year-old man went on an eight-hour armed rampage Tuesday that ended with him being booked on charges of attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, kidnapping, rape and auto theft.

Police reported Frank Phillip Kretz, Jr., Indio, took a shot at his former wife, missed, beat up the couple she was living with in Indio, stole their car, kidnapped a newspaper deliveryman and stole his car after dumping him out at nearby Beaumont. He then came here, raped a housewife after tying up her husband, according to police.

Hemet Police Chief Cecil W. Welsh said he spotted Kretz standing in a clump of trees. He said Kretz was armed with a shotgun but surrendered after being talked to several minutes.

Four Youths Arrested

Four husky Yucaipa youths were today accused of engineering a string of burglaries from Redlands to Cathedral City.

Sheriff's deputies said the youths used the muscle power of a 17-year-old Yucaipa football star to break into at least two Cathedral City homes last month.

BOOKED FOR burglary charges here were Noel Bert Rogers, 20, and David George Miller, 18. Their two 17-year-old companions were turned over to San Bernardino County juvenile officers.

Riverside County Sheriff's Deputy Wally Jenks said Rogers and Miller were arrested by San Bernardino deputies after they were linked to burglaries in Redlands, Yucaipa and Cathedral City by the juveniles.

JENKS SAID Rogers and Miller were turned over to Riverside County when they allegedly admitted raiding two Cathedral City homes after one juvenile, a high school football star, battered in the front doors with his shoulder. Deputies recovered a television set, phonograph and two clocks taken from the home of Irene Chapman, 37-471 Melrose Drive, but failed to find five bottles of liquor taken from the home of Edward F. Koenig, 68-126 Granview.

THE YOUTHS also admitted taking hub caps from a Cathedral City car and the floor mats from an auto in Palm Springs.

Rogers and Miller were ordered held for Superior Court action by Justice Court Judge Eugene Theriault and are now in jail in lieu of $1,000 bond each.

The board meets at 7:30 p.m. in the high school music building.

Easier Grass-Cutting

RICHMOND, Ind. — (UPI) — Leisure-loving Americans are going in more and more for power lawnmowers, according to Moto-Mower, Inc., which reports that 11 out of every 12 mowers sold in 1958 were of the power type.

Veteran Realtor Appraiser to Be Speaker Here

John Swing, veteran San Bernardino Realtor-appraiser, will be guest speaker for the general membership meeting of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board at the Ranch Club Thursday evening.

Swing, a Realtor and appraiser for 14 years, will talk on the question, "Are You Ready to Meet the Customer?"

A NATIVE OF San Bernardino, Swing is a graduate of the University of Redlands and Longmire Business College.

He is past president of the San Bernardino Real Estate Board, past chairman of the San Bernardino Multiple Listing Division and past chairman of the State of California Multiple Listing.

SWING IS ALSO past vice president of the California Real Estate Association, with which he served as director for five terms. He has been a college real estate instructor for six years and is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the National Institute of Real Estate Brokers.

During World War II, Swing was a major in the Army and served 5½ years in Europe.

McGuire Enters Plea of Guilty To Theft Charge

John Edward McGuire yesterday pleaded guilty to the theft of a $300 wrist watch from a Palm Springs jewelry store.

McGuire, of Redondo Beach, originally pleaded innocent but reversed his plea in Judge Hilton McCabe's Indo Superior Court yesterday. Detective Dick Harries said today.

Harries said McGuire, charged with the felony count of petty theft with a prior conviction, will be sentenced by Judge McCabe on March 19.

cultured throughout all of Asia by book, pamphlet, by radio, by song—and by that unstoppable agent, word of mouth. The MRA plays and musicals are an added force, perhaps the most powerful of all, the foursome agreed.

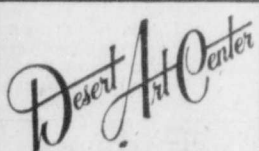

"RUSSIA IS spending 11 per cent of its annual budget on culture," Sena said. "They plan to avalanche the free world with 900 films this year and they are sending the Peking Opera and dance groups like the Moiseyevs throughout the world as harbingers of Communistic life."

"We feel that 'Turing Of the Tide'—like our other plays—can be equally powerful," said his wife. "They are entertainment, but entertainment with a message."

"WHAT THEY HAVE done in Asia already," said Madame Tha, "they can do for the rest of the world. They are different from the usual musical or play."

"They have to be different because we have a story that is different," Mathur said. "Someone in MRA once said why dramatize the problem when you can dramatize the answer."

"We," he said softly but meaningfully, "have the answer." And the heads of his fellow Asians nodded again.

County Heart Association Gives $5,500 Grant

A pair of Riverside County research doctors have been awarded a $5,500 grant from the Riverside County Heart Association for work on a theory that may drastically curb heart disease.

The two are Dr. Robert H. Maybury and Dr. Richard S. Welsh, both associate professors of chemistry at the University of Redlands.

The pair are immersed in research regarding the arrangement of six types of atoms which form protein molecules. The protein molecule, vital to all life, has been regarded as a possible key to coronary illness.

"Whether the problem," declared Dr. Maybury, "is a clot in a thrombosis attack or a hereditary leaning toward hardening of the arteries, a clear picture of protein structure will some day permit controlled, scientific treatment and prevention that will lengthen lives."

Dr. Zeman made the announcement in conjunction with the official launching of Heart Month in Riverside County which is scheduled to begin on March 1. A special Heart Sunday Fund Drive will be the official kickoff for the month on March 1.

The association president urged county residents to aid the fund drive by "contributing generously."

Improvement Of Crosswalk Lights Asked

Safety Council
President Tells Of Critical Need

Don Miller, president of the Palm Springs Safety Council, appeared before the City Council this week to ask for better crosswalk lighting on Palm Canyon Drive "to better insure the safety of pedestrians."

Miller explained that most of the crosswalks now have lighting, but "it is not sufficient to protect the pedestrian—we should have heavier lighting in these critical spots."

The Safety Council president also announced that the local body would hold its second meeting of the year at 8 p. m., Friday, March 6, at the Council Chambers, at which time the speaker will be Judge Roger Pfaff, Los Angeles Superior Court.

The council has asked the director of public works to check into the lighting problem.

Bond Named To New Bus Study Group

New Courses
To Be Offered
This Summer

George Bond, supervisor of transportation for the Palm Springs Unified School District, has been invited by the State Department of Education, State of California, to serve on a newly organized committee for the establishment of summer courses for school bus drivers.

The classes will be offered during the 1959 summer session, and will consist of 15 hours of work for one unit of credit. Instruction will be under the supervision of the Driver Education instructors of the state colleges, and enrollment will be limited to 35 persons in a class.

Five units of study to be covered are: Legal and moral responsibilities of school bus drivers, traffic laws and regulations, school bus passenger management, care and driving of heavy equipment, and general review of safe driving and bus management.

The committee will meet three times to set up the summer session.

7-Man Municipal Golf Committee Named by Mayor

Mayor Frank Bogert yesterday announced the names of the seven men who will serve on the advisory committee to determine the lease and budget for the proposed municipal golf course.

Named on the committee (first as yet not accepted) are: George Beebe, chairman; John Wood, Milt Hicks, M. O. Anderson, Johnny Dawson, Russell Wade and Joel Stone.

The seven men, according to the mayor, have shown the highest interest in the proposed course, and have individually worked hard for many years to establish a municipal course.

The mayor pointed out, however, that this committee was not the governing committee of the golf course, explaining that the appointment of the "directors" would be made at a later date.

DESERT BRAEMAR

Even though the weatherman cooed against them, the residents of Desert Braemar staged their delayed St. Valentine's Day picnic in grand style Saturday. Set for the previous Saturday, it was postponed on account of the inclement weather.

Saturday morning the tables covered with pink cloths with accommodations for 90 people were set up in the expanse of emerald lawn near the pool. Then came pennies from heaven. Hastily one of the 200-foot car ports were cleared and the tables replaced under the shelter. And then all was well though heavy coats and sweaters were much in evidence. Pappy's eatery served hot food and steaming coffee to 85 appreciative guests.

Mrs. Ann Gibbs, a talented accordionist and a resident of Braemar, provided the instrumental inspiration for the "harmonious" song fest.

The St. Valentine's Day motif was emphasized by each guest wearing a scarlet heart bearing his or her name. Table decorations consisted of a centerpiece of large hearts in red, which had been prepared by Mrs. H. B. Dawson.

The committee in charge of the midday affair consisted of Mrs. June St. Clair as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Page, Betty Park, Maggie Mayner and Ruth McClelland. Hostesses were Mrs. Isabel Dawson, Bert Anderson.

Mrs. Jean Hughes of Malibu is visiting Mrs. W. H. Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hine and daughters, Christie and Dianne, spent the weekend with Mr. Hine's parents, the Wesley Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Phillips had as their guests, R. D. Corette and Jack Rivers of Butte, Mont.

Colonel and Mrs. Coryl Hazel-tine of Pebble Beach will arrive Tuesday to spend a few days with the Phillips.

Industry Snaps Back
NEW YORK — UPI —Domestic rubber consumption this year is expected to rise 13 per cent above the 1,330,000 long tons used in 1958, according to R. R. Ormsby, president of the Rubber Manufacturers Association.

He noted that shipments of replacement passenger tires rose 5 per cent in 1958 to a record 59,500,000 units. Deliveries of truck-tires and farm tires also rose.

Cub Scout Blue, Gold Dinner Set

CATHEDRAL CITY — The 49th annual Cub Scout Blue and Gold Dinner will be observed by Cathedral City Pack 81 at the Cathedral City School cafeteria Thursday night, and will be presided over by Cubmaster Trenton Dunphy and assistant Cubmasters Johnny Palmer and Bert Smith.
Mrs. Dunphy, who is in charge of dinner arrangements, is being assisted by Don Mothers Mrs. Orvil Zappe, Mrs. Merrill Ostad, Mrs. Thomas Patterson, Mrs. James Mills and Mrs. Frank Altchison.
Girl Scouts of Palm Springs Troop 3 of Desert Sky Council will assist with the serving.
Dinner is scheduled for 6:30 and all attending are requested to bring their own table service.
Cub Scout Troop 81 is sponsored by the Cathedral City Lions Club.

The event was a Men's Club Breakfast, an event staged regularly by men of Sun Town.
A committee composed of Tommy Malone, Clark Kirkpatrick, Vic Laurson, Lyle Abbott, Joe Dolecek, Richard Abbott, Ed Fry, Chet Kennedy, Joe Diebenow, Joe Irwin, Art Chace, Charley Heacock, Al Oass and Al Nehl took charge of the breakfast and rejected every attempt by women residents to help out.
The Men's Club is planning an old-fashioned Oregon crab feed—complete with German fried potatoes, garlic bread and the works—for staging in the near future. No aid will be accepted from Sun Town women for that event, either.

Protests Grow Against State Use of Poison Bait to Kill Coyotes

For some time past the State of California, through the Department of Wildlife, has been conducting a campaign to exterminate coyotes.

Much like the killer wolves of the north country, coyotes are the murdering marauders of less populated regions of the brush and timbered slopes of the vast west coast and desert regions.

They are the number one predators of fowls and smaller animals in their natural habitats. They are also well known for their nocturnal forays into inhabited areas in search of chickens, cats and even dogs to satisfy their carnivorous cravings.

Anyone familiar with the destructive habits and depredations of these sneaking scavengers and their resultant decimation of wildlife will strongly support the purpose of the State Department in attempting to reduce the number of coyotes to the vanishing point.

However, the method of scattering poisoned bait now being used in the war to the death against coyotes is resulting in a rising wave of protests from residents of a number of areas in which it is currently employed.

One of the reasons is that the particular poison chosen results in an extremely painful and agonizing death.

Another complaint is that animals other than coyotes often are also killed by the poison including all too frequently cats and dogs from homes in the vicinity of the bait spreading operations.

It is to be hoped that the officials in charge of directing the campaign against coyotes will prove responsive to the well founded reason for the growing public protests and plan a safer and more humane approach to the problem.

In the past, the bounty system for trappers and hunters has proved quite effective in California in reducing destructive and predatory animals ranging from ground squirrels to mountain lions. Even though the coyote is extremely wily and difficult to track down, a sufficiently enticing bounty has always attracted enough hunters to assure accurate and accelerated results.

In the minds of most people almost any other means would be preferable to the present scattering of poisoned bait, a practice too dangerous and cruel even in the execution of unwanted coyotes.

Peers of the Hemisphere

MEXICO CITY — Not only is it more blessed to give than to receive — it is also more difficult.

When it was learned that up to 260 reporters would cover the historical meeting between Presidents Eisenhower and Lopez Mateos, United States officials offered to help set up at Acapulco the major communications center which such a news gathering demands. The Mexican reply was — No thanks. We can do it ourselves.

NOT LONG AGO the U.S. Government decided on a public health program for the Mexican workers at the very base of the economic pyramid. Again the response from the Mexican government was curt and firm: We can do it ourselves.

These rebuffs were directed toward the manner of our proffered aid, not to the aid itself. The latter is most welcome. But Americans who have the image of the typical Mexican as Pedro wrapped in a blanket on the shady side of the wall would be astonished at the amount of Castilian pride which beats just below the Rio Grande. They would also be as I was during this visit — nettled at the image of the typical American Babbitt which lurks in the average Mexican mind.

"WE ARE BRINGING" sympathy orchestras and art shows down here," a U.S. official told me, "to try and convince these people that we DO have some culture."

"Actually," he continued, eyeing me for signs of belief and assent which are rather scarce, "I judged, among Mexicans, 'the U.S. has more municipal orchestras per capita than any other country.'"

Without doubt, we are still considered a parvenu nation in this land which had a going Aztec civilization before North America was even "discovered" and had its Cortesian conquest before the Pilgrim Fathers were born. "This park," said the Indian guide who was showing me the city, "was here when your country was founded." The Metropolitan Cathedral, where hundreds of millions of Mexican Catholics have knelt, is far older than anything of ours.

ALONG WITH THIS hauteur, the Mexican carries a grievance which may never quite heal. One of the first things he learns at school and in his home is that the United States took away half his country in an "unjust" war.

Although the intelligent Mexican feels friendly toward the Democratic Party because of the New Deal, he has an almost-Republican hatred of President Woodrow Wilson, whose internationalist meddling commenced with the occupation of Vera Cruz and continued with the punitive invasion of Mexico under another U.S. hero, General John Pershing.

MEXICANS RESENT our exploitation of the adjective "American" in reference to ourselves. We are "North" Americans. Even our use of "the United States" is considered a little presumptuous. After all, there is also a United States of Mexico.

The visitor from North America, of course, need not accept these views of history. He would be wise to back up his own country, right or wrong. But the difficulty of aid-giving to Mexico should be viewed against this background. Practically every Mexican is a revolutionary at heart, a Gringo-baiter by education and a liberal by conviction. The liberalism is part party line and part philosophy. Along Mexico was the asylum of Trotsky and is still the sanctuary of many exiled radicals, the hospitality for the political outcast is one-sided as a political speech.

Quotes from the News

TACOMA, Wash. — Opposing attorneys in the Dave Beck income tax trial:

Charles S. Burdell, attorney for Beck: "Beck wasn't spending his time giving orders to the bookkeepers. He was not building the union."

John Obenour, assistant U.S. attorney: "Could a bungling incompetent rise from the ranks in some 20 odd years to president of his union?"

LOS ANGELES — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, on the illness of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles:

"It seems a sad commentary that the secretary of state should have to become so ill for people to appreciate him. When this period of history is written it will prove we have been at peace in one of the most difficult periods of all time."

CHICAGO — Dr. William J. Gay of Woodstock, Ill., on the use of tranquilizing pills in preparing animals for slaughter:

"It gives them a feeling of false confidence."

MIAMI BEACH — Teamsters President James Hoffa, predicting his union would beat the AFL-CIO in a race to organize workers in Puerto Rico:

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And . . . we'll be on top when it is over."

WASHINGTON — Chairman Otto E. Passman (D-La.), pre-

"I DOUBT VERY much," an official said drily, "that poor Batista would be welcomed here. And I certainly wouldn't advise anybody to get up on a soap box and make an anti-Government speech."

With hypersensitive pride, with anti-Gringo prejudice and with the humorless inconsistency that generally goes with radicalism, the Mexican presents a real challenge to our zealous gift-givers. Since we are not permitted to offer aid at the lowest social strata, where it is most needed, we go to the next best level—that of political and labor leaders, the younger the better.

BUT EVEN HERE we are often thwarted. These leaders are, not infrequently, either so crooked or so violently anti-Yankee as to discourage any contact. The upshot is that U.S. authorities must do more than a little screening of Mexican nationals.

It may be good in theory to send young intellectuals to the U.S. for further schooling and technical training so that they may return and uplift Mexican society. But the intellectuals are the backbone of the several Marxist movements in Mexico. They have been known to return to their country far more virulent than when they departed.

THE MEXICAN Labor movement can be regarded, it has been wisely said, as a river—either as an obstacle or as a vehicle of approach to American good will. But it hardly pays to send a dedicated Communist, as more than a few Labor leaders are, to study U.S. systems of productivity.

All is difficult, but nothing is impossible. There is always this solemn thought to ponder: Today we are the giver, but another half-century like the one just past—who knows but the roles should be reversed?—Holmes Alexander dicting that the House appropriations subcommittee would trim President Eisenhower's "wasteful" four-billion dollar foreign aid request despite veto threats: "The threat of veto — or bluffing tactics — will not shake the integrity of the members of the subcommittee."

LOS ANGELES — Dr. Luther Evans, former director general of the United Nations Economic, Social and Cultural Organization, denying that United States aid was contingent on whether an underdeveloped nation was anti-Communist:

"This is not really the genuine explanation of our efforts. Our moral position is greater and more noble than we have stated it to be."

Seems Like an Easy Decision to Make

This Side of The Sun

Something new has been Added to the Palm Springs scene. A bit of fisticuffs With Suzulina and Gene.

We've got golf, we've got tennis, aquatic meets, polo, shuffleboard, volleyball, baseball, basketball, every kind of sports except skiing and related features such as bobsledding and ice skating. (Understand the latter is in the future book.)

And now we are going to have the noble art of self defense. The latter means clobbering the other guy first.

THIS MELEE slated for April 4 between Gene Fullmer, former middleweight champion and Franz Szusina, German champion, on the Desert Circus agenda April 4, brings back fond memories.

Away back in the middle ages when I first decided that belabouring a typewriter was more fun than that sticking a thermometer down people's throats and so quit the plan to become a doctor and go newspapering instead, I got stuck on the sportside and was assigned to cover the fights at Naud Junction, Los Angeles.

TODAY I WOULDN'T know an upper cut from a top sirloin or a round house from a railroad terminal. But I still like to see a good brawl in what is termed the "squared circle."

On TV, that is. Then there is no chance of a knocked-out mouthpiece muzzling up a clean sport as in the old days when you sat under the apron of the arena and picked teeth out from between the typewriter keys.

BUT, AS AN added attraction to the Desert Circus, I think Jimmy Morton has done a great job.

The upcoming Circus will have something for everybody. There'll be horses and floats, kangaroo courts, Big Top Ball, street dances.

And the manly art of self defense.

NOW, I THINK I've heard everything. Orval Risvold, circulation manager of The Desert Sun, in an effort to see that our customers are pleased, always insists that every newsboy, when he has a "stop," finds out why. So that any complaint can be rectified. But he had a new one the other day. And I'll attest this is true.

ONE OF THE BOYS came in and said a subscriber had discontinued the paper.

The boy asked the woman, "Why?"

And was told that during Lent we must all give up something we like.

So she discontinued The Sun until after March 29, Easter.

VILLAGER WHO just came back from a motor trip through the South tells me that Texas simply will not give up and recognize the admission of Alaska as the 49th state.

He calls attention to the fact that down in Texas, the Texas Company, "Texaco," is still advertising that its regular gasoline is sold "in all 48 states."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Hardly a day goes by these days but what some moppet is snatched. It is almost a national craze. Like swallowing goldfish in fraternity houses used to be.

It has become dangerous to leave a baby lying around a supermarket.

First thing you know, some lady will boost your baby, tucking him in among the potatoes and the saltines.

A LADY LAYS her child down while she fumbles in her purse. Suddenly she looks around and hollers: "ELMER!"

Elmer has been lifted and is calmly chewing a box of Duz in some other lady's pushcart. The FBI then goes out and locates the baby and returns him.

STRANGELY, LADIES with babies do not have any sense of alarm about other ladies. Only about men.

I give baby carriages a wide berth. If I so much as peek in a baby carriage, the mother hustles over with suspicious looks. She begins to compare me with pictures she saw on the post office walls.

SHE GETS IN between me and the child. She tucks in blankets and makes little kitchy-koo noises. All the time growling over her shoulder.

Heavenly days, I would not lift a baby. I would not know what to do with one. I only took a little peek in the buggy to see what was in the packages.

NOW LET another lady walk up and take a little look in the carriage. The mama is all smiles.

The peeking lady pokes the child with her forefinger. "Itchy-koo!" she cries. "Him got two teeth!"

"Three," says the mama, never moving a muscle. "And give me a half pound of the ground round," she tells the butcher and turns her back.

"Three teeth?" says the peeking lady. "Him got three teeth! Let me see the toothies!"

THIS IS THE kind of person who has a REASON to heist babies.

She LIKES babies. If any body looked at my wallet like she is looking at that baby, I would move in with a load of law.

The mama is perfectly calm. She is happy some other lady is admiring the child.

But let me move in with a sidelong glance. (Which I have done. Being curious and wondering what all the fuss was about.)

One little look. The mama drops the baby with the butcher. She pulls the carriage over and hooks it with her arm.

Both ladies glare at me.

YOU WOULD think I ATE children. Actually I am an old hand with small babies. And can cut up touches with other fathers on pins and rashes. And how many miles we have walked them in the middle of the night.

I am kindly to small children. It has taken a lot of forbearance on my part. Once I was packed in a crowded elevator. A 2-year-old boy got hold of my coat and began chewing on it.

HE MUNCHIED all the way up to the 19th floor. And when I started to get out, I almost took his teeth along with me. The mother snatched him back.

And the looks I got from the other ladies in the elevator! Nothing said about the tail of that coat. And believe me, it does not improve flannel to be chewed on.

Don't watch children is my motto. Watch out for them.

Judy Garland's on Night Shift

NEW YORK — Judy Garland was such a triumph when she returned to the night clubs at the Miami Beach Fontainebleau that Comedian Joe E. Lewis rushed over from the Eden Roc and helped her sing her last song, which happened to be something entitled, "Happiness Is Just a Thing Called Joe." A spectator asked Joe E. if he's been drinking. "I don't think anything stronger than pop," retorted Joe E. proudly. "And Pop'll drink anything."

The Arthur Miller've been invited by the new CBS Person-to-Person setup to be interviewed for the whole half hour—first time it's been done — one family since for the Harry Trumans. Incidentally, everybody asks, "Who's dubbed Marilyn's voice for those songs in 'Some Like It Hot'?" Composed Matty Malneck, musical director of the picture, swore to me on a stack of ASCAP checks that Marilyn's voice is so improved she did her own songs—in fact, she may be dubbing for other stars! Har voice has an eloquent crack which is premeditated, rehearsed and calculated to sell zillions of records.

The Jack Paar-Vs-Peter Lind Hayes TV strife continues. Pete answered Jack's challenge to meet him in the ring by coming on camera on ABC wearing an eye patch, then inviting spectator Rocky Graziano on stage and saying, "Next time I'm going to send him." Hayes added, "I didn't mean by my impersonation to be offensive — it just turned out that way."

Paar said, "Hayes means nothing to me — he's just a small talent as far as TV's concerned. 'Variety' said his show was an imitation of the Jack Paar show. Apparently he needs the publicity. I seek no publicity, yet I guess Business." Life has been taking pictures at his home for four days.

Controversial Headliner

HOLLYWOOD — Stella Stevens may turn out to be as controversial a headliner as the star she has been selected to portray in 20th-Fox's "Jean Harlow Story." The young (20) starlet is flying back to her home in Memphis March 2 for Round One with her ex, prizefighter Herman Stevens, in a custody battle over their three-year-old son Andy.

Officers of RKO, the company that sold its studio to Desilu, are girding to do battle with Diana Dors. She's suing them for libel and breach of contract, since she was the last star signed to a longterm contract before the shutdown.

THEY ADMITTEDLY haven't paid her but here's the way the battle lines are being drawn up: they will claim that they invoked the morals clause in Diana's contract, showing that the U. S. Immigration Department denied re-entry to Diana and her husband, the late Dennis Hamilton, thereby preventing her from making movies here — because of his alleged criminal record in England.

How to Get a Part in a Hollywood Movie: Mickey Rooney's "Big Operator" co-producers at Metro, Red Doff and Al Zugsmith, signed two 13-year-old newcomers for roles in the picture. Youngsters are Larry Doff and Mike Zugsmith, sons of the producers.

Neurotic Oscar Levant didn't once mention how neurotic he is on one of his interview shows last week, except when his wife June mentioned Judy Garland. Adlibbed Oscar: "Judy has a fine talent and between the two of us we have the largest collection of pharmaceuticals in the country!"

He reported at Universal at 6 a.m. for a role in a FILMED Peter Gunn segment, finished at 4 p.m. and reported immediately to Metro to complete his role in the FILMED "Big Operator" movie by 9 p.m., and wound up emceeing a LIVE interview on KTLA's Ad Lib show.

Top NBA Star Eyes Trail End

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Mental exhaustion which "makes it harder every year to get myself up" has Bob Cousy, one of the pro game's most colorful players, looking forward today to the end of the competitive basketball road.
Not that Cousy is ready yet to call it a career. That depends entirely on how much longer the Boston Celtics need him as a draw.
But Cousy, who will be 31 before another season rolls around, after nine years as a pro finds the grind of playing and travel becoming more and more exhausting.

MUCH OF THE feeling undoubtedly generates from his idea that a 4-foot, 4-inch is getting to be a "little man" in pro ball plus the fact that the 6-foot 1-inch Celtic playmaker has "changed my attitude" and leans more favorably now toward a coaching berth.
"I'm in good shape and I certainly can go on playing longer," Cousy explained without saying how much longer. "A number of players have gone on to 33 and beyond, on top of which as a playmaker who doesn't have to worry too much about scoring I don't have that to worry about."

BUT THE BOYS are getting bigger every year and it gets tougher and tougher on the "little" men.
"I don't like to talk about height because it might discourage some boys from playing basketball," he said. "After all, in college a boy of almost any height can make the grade. But, let's face it, the players get bigger every year in pro ball and sooner or later the 4-foot, 4-inch man is going to be the shrump of the league."

"They can do anything the 4-footer or the 6-foot-5 man can do—and with their height advantage can do it better," Cousy analyzes.

They won't have to run any benefits for Cousy when he steps down. He has an insurance business, dickers in public relations and has a summer camp at Pittsfield, N.H.

First Hold-Out For S. F. Giants In Worthington

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants faced the prospect of having their first genuine holdout in several years today—pitcher Allan Worthington.
The club management still has not received a signed contract from Ramon Montant, but conceded that Worthington posed the real problem.
Worthington is reported to be asking about $20,000, some $8,000 more than he received last year when he won 11 games and lost seven. The big right-hander has indicated he is satisfied to wait until his demands are met.

FULL DODGER SQUAD AT TRAINING CAMP TODAY

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — The full Los Angeles Dodgers squad was due here today in preparation for Thursday's official opening of spring training for all Dodger players.
The pitchers and catchers have been in drill since last Thursday and many of the other regular players turned up early to show the folks back in California how determined they are to do better than their seventh place standing at the end of last year.
Included in the group expected to report were Jim Gilliam, Steve Bilko, Gil Hodges, Jim Koranda, Norm Larker, Don Zimmer, Gene Wallace and Don Miles.
The good showings and high morale of the pitchers had led manager Walt Alston to declare that his pitching staff already is far ahead of last year's conditioning.

Webb Shooting For Title Shot In Bout Tonight

CHICAGO (UPI) — Middleweight Spider Webb wants a win over Bobby Boyd in a televised fight tonight because "it should open the gates for me for a title fight."

Webb, a 5 to 2 favorite for the match, was bitter though about the title prospects since he believed champion Sugar Ray Robinson was "gloating up the whole works."
"I don't think it's fair for him to be playing off fights with Archie Moore or Carmen Basilio and making all the rest of us hang around," he said. "He's made everybody spend two years waiting already. I'm definitely a better fighter now than I was then, but how long can you go on waiting?"

Webb, third ranked among the 160 pounders, said that his match with Boyd called for a "must win" because "if I lose, I could be shut out of the title picture completely for a while."

Big Trade Deal Cooking in Majors

Braves, Cards And Reds Talk Player Swaps

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — The Milwaukee Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds are cooking up player trades under the hot Florida sun that could develop into a three-team smorgas-bord.

All three clubs need help at vital positions. The Braves are searching for a replacement for their hospitalized second baseman, Red Schoendienst; the Cardinals would like to acquire a hard-hitting outfielder, and the Reds need a first baseman and/or pitcher.

General managers Bing Devine of the Cardinals and Gabe Paul of the Reds exchanged views during a trade talk at St. Petersburg Tuesday and John McHale, the Braves new GM, conferred with Devine earlier this week.

HERE ARE SOME of the trades reportedly being kicked around under the sheltering palms:

Jerry Lynch of the Reds for Vinegar Bend Mizell of the Cardinals; Gene Conley of the Braves for Irv Noren or Bobby Gene Smith of the Cardinals; Don Blasingame of the Cardinals for Bob Buhl of the Braves; Johnny Temple of the Reds for Conley and Buhl or Don McMahon and Joe Adcock.

Devine, following his talk with Paul, admitted "we probably will have to give up a front-line pitcher to get a front-line man who can help our attack." And Mizell shapes up as the pitcher who might be sacrificed in any trade, although he is the Cards' outstanding southpaw.

McHALE CONCEDED he was "just feeling out the other clubs to see what they have to offer." However, the Milwaukee GM would like to land a replacement for Schoendienst before the training season is too far advanced.

The Braves announced Tuesday that Mel Roach will have his ailing left knee examined Friday by a physician at Sarasota, Fla. if the National League champions aren't able to pick up a second baseman in a trade, Roach would move into the spot. However, he has been unable to run at top speed since injuring his knee last season.

Several other major league clubs, meanwhile, may wind up with genuine holdouts when full-scale drills start Thursday at most training camps. Among the major "stragglers" are Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, Richie Ashburn of the Phillies, and Bob Cerv of the Athletics.

Construction of an 18-hole championship golf course got underway today at La Quinta Hotel with the course expected to be completed and ready for use by Oct. 1.

When completed, the course will play either 6,200 or 7,200 yards depending on whether the golfers use the forward or rear tees. The longest hole will be 535 yards.

All Quiet Today In Squaw Valley

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (UPI) — There was little activity today in this High Sierra valley, site for the North American Nordic Ski Championships this weekend.

Many of the foreign delegations cut short practice sessions to travel to nearby Reno to inspect the gambling casinos. The tourists included the Swedes, Finns, Norwegians and Russians.

The Nordic competition opens Saturday with the 30 kilometer cross-country ski race. The invitational international speed skating events, expected to produce a flock of world records, also will begin the same day, along with more ski jump practice.

Heinie Klopfer, designer of the valley's Olympic jumping hill, predicted jumpers would reach or excel 90 meters. Some already have approached that mark in practice sessions.

Torrence Holds Long Lead in PCC Scoring

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — UCLA's Walt Torrence had the Pacific Coast Conference basketball scoring title almost sewed up today with a 31-point lead over Washington's Doug Smart, weekly statistics from the commissioner's office disclosed.

Torrence in 13 games has averaged 21.4 points for a total of 278 points while Smart has averaged 19 points a game. Lee Harman of Oregon State has an average of 18.3.

Smart, however, has established a new all-time conference scoring record of 913 points over three years, breaking the former record of 908 points set by Dave Gambee of Oregon State during 1956-58. With three games remaining, Smart can improve his mark.
The Washington star was the leader in field goal percentage and rebounding as well. Smart has 98 field goals in 183 attempts for a mark of 53.5 per cent. Rafter Johnson of UCLA was second to Smart with 51.6 per cent, followed by Harman with 48.3.

Smart captured 173 rebounds out of 1096 chances for 15.7 per cent.

Troy Ruttman Plans Racing Comeback

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Troy Ruttman, winner of the 1952 Indianapolis 500 who recently was banned for one year by the USAC, announced today he would start his racing comeback by driving in a late-model stock car race Sunday at Ascot Stadium.

John Liveous of Idaho was second with 13.0 per cent and Darrell Imhof of California was third with 13.6.

Denny Fitzpatrick of California led at the free throw line with 33 points in 42 attempts for a mark of 90.6 per cent. This equaled the record for a minimum of 30 points set by Gary Simmons of Idaho in 1957. Tied for second in free throws were Paul Neumann, Stanford, and Jim Woodland, Oregon State, with 88.5 per cent.

In team statistics, California led defensively by allowing its opponents but 49.2 points a game.

UCLA led in rebounding with a mark of 35.5 per cent. Washington was tops in team scoring with a 66.5 point average while California led in shooting with 295 baskets on 723 attempts for a mark of 40.7 per cent. California also led in field goal defense, allowing opponents to sink but 33.8 per cent of their shots.

LONG-TIME SOLOIST with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, Erica Morini will appear at 8:15 p.m., Saturday, in Palm Springs High School Auditorium. Concert, sponsored by the Palm Springs Community Concert Association, is open to anyone holding a 1959 Community Concert Association ticket.

N.Y. PHILHARMONIC ARTIST TO APPEAR

You can fool all of the critics some of the time, some of the critics all of the time—but you can't fool all of the critics all of the time.

The paraphrasing of Lincoln's famous phrase would seem to apply to Erica Morini, the New York Philharmonic violin soloist, who will appear in recital for the Palm Springs Community Concert Association at 8:15 p.m., Sunday; she has made a lifetime avocation of "fooling" all of the critics all of the time.

"HOW SHE DOES It is simple, and is perhaps best summed up by the statement of John Briggs, in The New York Times, that "her playing is art that conceals art. It appears effortless and sounds flawless."

There are a great list of musicologists throughout the nation who have come, heard and been conquered by the remarkable Miss Morini.

IN CHICAGO she delivered a "serenely unaffected performance," in Cleveland she was lauded for her "discerning musicianship," in Los Angeles she was "as brilliant as one ever hears" and in Jerusalem, the critic doubted that "her intensity and musical intelligence could be matched by any living violinist."

But it took an all-Beethoven program during a summer symphony series last year at New York's Lewisohn Stadium to really drag the critics out in the open. A program that had been cancelled once because of rain, the second performance of the Beethoven program nearly met the same fate when a sudden deluge pelted Gotham a half hour before curtain.

STILL, SOME 7,000 Beethoven-lovers braved the threatening storm to hear Miss Morini play the Violin Concerto in a program that also included the Leonore Overture and the Fifth Symphony. A stiff breeze furred the violinists' concert dress and she was augmented on the first movement of the concerto by sirens from fire engines on a three-alarm in the neighborhood.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: Which do you consider the most advisable course? (1) Break up my marriage now, while my wife is still young and attractive enough to make another life for herself? Or—(2) Wait until the children are grown, educated and independent? I have no intention of paying for one mistake all the rest of my life. Even a bank robber gets off in twenty years.

UNDECIDED

DEAR UNDECIDED: A "sentence" imposed on a bank robber is not to be compared with the oath you VOLUNTARILY took to love, honor and cherish one woman until death do you part. Be a man, my son.

DEAR ABBY: I have always been very jealous of my husband because he's extremely good looking and I am nothing to write home about. My best girlfriend told me to fight fire with fire and make him jealous by playing up to another man. I purposely led another man on at a dance and he made a pass at me. I told my husband and he just laughed it off and said, "Can't you take a joke?" Do you think my husband meant that I was so ugly that no man would make a pass at me or do you think my husband was too chicken to fight him? JEALOUS

DEAR JEALOUS: Perhaps your husband had such complete confidence in your behavior as a lady that he felt a man would not seriously encourage you to act otherwise. Forget it, and don't fight fire with fire unless you want to get burned.

DEAR ABBY: When I came home from college for Christmas vacation (I am working on my Master's Degree) I fell in love with a hired hand who works on our turkey ranch. He has only an Eighth Grade education. Do you think the difference in our education and background will bring us trouble later on if we marry? My parents are very much against the match because they think I am lowering myself. The romance has gone much further than anyone suspects, and I am considering marrying him. Could we be happy?

IN LOVE

DEAR IN: How old are you? How old is he? What else (besides "love") have you in common? Get to know him better and think it over carefully or you will spend the rest of your life talking turkey.

CONFIDENTIAL TO FOREMAN FRANK: The principle is the same. A man who'd steal an egg would steal a chicken. If you have to watch him after you've warned him—can him.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

"FOR YOU FROM THE BONAIRE," title of his new LP record album, themed this picture, too, when Tom Powers took his portable phonograph and the new album over to the Stevens Road home of Mrs. Frank Russell Payne, right, to entertain her and her houseguest Mrs. C. Wilson West, who is here from Vallejo. The impromptu show was especially appreciated by the two women, as Mrs. Payne has been a victim of a flu bug and her guest has been passing the hours sitting alone by the pool. (Desert Sun Photo).

Dinner Is Triple Celebration of Two Birthdays, Anniversary

It was a triple celebration Sunday night when the John McClures hosted a group of around 50 at cocktails at their home on Mesquite, followed by dinner at the Tennis Club.

Two birthdays, that of the host and that of Dr. John Costello, and the anniversary of the Joe Froggatts inspired the pleasant evening.

In the party were the McClures' houseguests the Henry Martins, and the McClures' daughter and son-in-law the William Newell Wests of Los Angeles.

The W. J. Brunmarks had with them the Swedish Consul and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Danielson of Los Angeles, for whom they entertained the previous evening.

Among other guests were: Messrs and Meses. John Luccarini, Norman Waters, Howard Morris, Don Bleitz, Randolph Christie, Ben Shearer, George Irwin, Paul Reynolds, S. P. Marasse, Also: the Billy Maloufs and their houseguests the Joe Healy, B. J. Sanchez and Pierre Bouscaren, Anne Thompson Smith, Hal Moffitt, Beth Scott, and others.

Bon Voyage Luncheon for Mrs. Peters

Hawaiian flowers floated in bowls and made attractive centerpieces for the individual luncheon tables when Mrs. Stanley Jones entertained at a luncheon in her home on South Calle Marcus Friday afternoon.

The luncheon was a Bon Voyage party for Mrs. Lois Peters who left Monday for a four month cruise around the world aboard the President Line "Monroe."

Many beautiful gifts were received by the honoree.

Among those bidding Ms. Peters farewell were Meses. Grace Omstead, Millie Smith, Julie Hammill, Vera Kline, Dorothy Owens, Lorraine Carl, Grace Matthews, Bess Sterner, Francis Pruitt and DeRugh Brainard.

Regans Host Party for McDonalds

David McDonald, head of the United States Steel Workers, who has been in Australia for a month and his wife, who has been houseguesting with the Phil Regans while he was abroad, were honored at a Saturday night reception hosted by the Regans at the house on Tamarisk Road, which they have leased for the winter.

This is the former Arakelian house, where Avak the Healer drew crowds of sick people hoping for a cure, and it's the same house where David Selznik and his wife Jennifer Jones lived a couple of winters ago. In its day it's known crowds of people and many celebrities, but nothing like Saturday night's party, when flash bulbs were flashing.

Mrs. McDonald, who has made many friends during her month's stay in Palm Springs, was celebrating her birthday by wearing her birthday gift, a Marusia gown, the Roses in Snow design that won applause at Friday's Marusia style show luncheon at the Racquet Club.

Governor and Mrs. Edmund Brown, here for a Palm Springs holiday, were among the notables who dropped in to pay their respects. Nat King Cole, weekend headliner at Chi Chi, was there with his lovely wife Maria. Donald Woods, who was appearing at the Playhouse last week and Mrs. Woods were there, and Vince Barnett, the actor-turned-restaurantier.

Former Governor Mons Wallgren and his wife, L. A. County Supervisor Warren Dorn and his wife, Ambassador and Mrs. James Kemper, Frank Pace, president of General Dynamics, who was Secretary of War under President Truman; Nat Dumonts (he's just been appointed by Governor Brown to serve as co-chairman of the Business Advisory Council, with Jess Tapp, chairman of the board of Bank of America.) were among other distinguished guests.

Others included: the Edgar Kaisers, Bob Post, Barbara Wright, the Walter Hubners, Charles Farrells, William Powells, Frank Bogert, Robert Underhills, Winsome Courtney, the Clarence Browns, Bill Lewis, Charlie Smiths, Jimmy Morton, Edmund Goulding, the Lionel Steinbergs, Glenn Austins, William Perlbbergs, Bob Buckners, Joe Halls, Myrt Blums, and many more.

Best-Seller Authors Here on Friday

Longstreet, Lindsay, Dibner, Anderson, Beaumont on Panel

The Palm Springs Chapter of Book and Authors Guild now in process of formation will hold its first of three luncheon meetings on Friday noon at the Tennis Club, with a remarkable panel of best-seller authors.

Stephen Longstreet, the well-known author of "The Burning Man" and other novels, will act as moderator for the author group which includes, Cynthia Lindsay, "Mother Climbed Trees;" Martin Dibner, "Showcase;" Courtney Anderson, "To The Golden Shore;" Charles Beaumont, "The Intruder" and Longstreet himself.

Cynthia Lindsay, author of that delightful book "Mother Climbed Trees" and equally well-known for her articles in Holiday, McCall's, New Yorker and Good Housekeeping magazines, presents the perils of growing up when children have mothers who climb trees. Wacky parents and an ever-shifting environment make growing-up complicated, and this book tells of a childhood spent with assorted cats, playboys, horses and showgirls, and teenage years spent on skis, skates, high boards and under water, and a mother who was in turn a vegetarian, atheist... and who climbed trees.

It was Cynthia Lindsay who collaborated with George Burns on the book "I Love Her, That's Why." Forthcoming are two new books "The Natives Are Restless" and "Home Is Where You Hang Yourself."

Martin Dibner author of "Deep Six," goes into the world of the department store for his "Showcase," which is the story of a trouble shooter Casey Landis, hired to overhaul Aintree's, an old-fashioned department store, before it slips into bankruptcy. It's been described as a driving, emotion-stirring novel that shatters the plate glass facade of the high-fashion department store which is its setting.

Courtney Anderson, best-known for his "To The Golden Shore: The Life of Adoniram Judson," began his career by scripting documentary films for educational and industrial associations, including the American Bible Society. It was while working on the latter that he first became interested in the story of Adoniram Judson, the first American minister to establish a mission in the East. Judson's translation of the Bible into Burmese was a heroic feat and his fame in the United States was so great at one time, that one third of the youthful male population was named after him. Part of his book "To The Golden Shore" was selected for inclusion in "Nation Under God", a religious-Patriotic anthology representing the work of Pearl Buck, Carl Sandburg, Walt Whitman, Carl Van Doren, William O. Douglas, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Chester Bowles, and others.

Charles Beaumont, known for some 300 stories and articles in the Saturday Evening Post, Esquire, Colliers and other magazines, is also the author of "The Hunter," which won the Gold Medal in 1947. He has written movie scripts, dozens of TV shows such as "Have Gun - Will Travel," "Philip Marlowe," etc. His latest book "The Intruder" deals with a little Southern town in which integration of the schools presents no problem until a stranger arrives, a man of violence.

Steven Longstreet began as a painter, studying in Paris, London, Berlin and Rome and later became a cartoonist for the New Yorker, Colliers, Saturday Evening Post and Life, a far cry from his recent acclaim as an award-winning painter with one man shows in Los Angeles, New York and London. He did radio shows for top stars and served on the editorial staff of Time, and his screen scripts won Photoplay awards. He's the author of the stage play "High Button Shoes," and his books include "The Lion At Morning," "The Beach House," and others. His "The Burning Man" is a rich, vibrant novel about the life and loves of a painter who became a giant in the world of modern art.

While invitations were sent out, others interested in joining this program (it's only $10 for the three panels) may call secretary Mary Young at FA 5-6392.

Mrs. Young advises that since the invitations were a little late in going out, membership cards and luncheon tickets may be secured at the door on Friday. However, reservations must be made by calling Mrs. Young or the Tennis Club.

Palm Springs Patronesses for the Book and Authors Guild are Mesdames Everett Ball, Edward Banning, H. Bedford-Jones, Anita Haskell Jones, Homer Hilton, Howard Mathews, Elizabeth McGee, Austin McManus, William Otto, Frank Russell Payne, Paul Summers, Co Thornton, George Wheeler, Lloyd Whaley.

When you serve dessert topping mix with fruit or ice cream, flavor the mix with 1/4 teaspoon almond or orange, flavoring instead of vanilla.

RESERVATIONS FOR THE WAIF BALL that will be held at El Mirador on March 14, are coming in fast, reports Mrs. George Gannon, chairman of the reservations committee. (Posesil Photo).

Emerald Ball at El Mirador Is Benefit for Local WAIF

This week finds Palm Springs society looking ahead to the annual WAIF Ball, which is being called the Emerald Ball this year, and which is being held at El Mirador on March 14.

Mrs. George Gannon, reservations chairman for the Ball, reports reservations for the gala formal event are coming in fast.

Several of the tables already arranged include the party being hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Christie, who will have Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooper Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Waters.

Another host and hostess entertaining a large party that night are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carpenter. This is an important occasion in their lives, as it was at the last WAIF ball held in Palm Springs last March that the couple became engaged and were married shortly after.

Seated with the Carpenters as their guests will be many of those who were at the announcement party last year. They include: Messrs. and Mmes. Earl Hender-

Tennis, Sunbathing and Some Swimming on Active Weekend

A sparkling group gathered at the Racquet Club over the weekend, from the tennis courts on back to the dining room and Teddy Noel's wonderful dancing music. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burlingham of Beverly Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Britton B. Wood of Piqua, Ohio, were here to join the Carl Lesermans.

Tennis enthusiast George Neise of TV fame was in a fast rally with actor Donald Woods, while his pretty wife Patty Neise was enjoying poolside sunbathing during their visit. Also enjoying the sun before continuing on the last leg of their around the world trip were Rand Broadcasting owner Rex Rand of Hibiscus Island, Florida, and John Mills of London (owner of Ambassadors Restaurant) who were the Charles Farrell's houseguests.

In the luncheon group were Edmund Goulding and actor John Sutton. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kenaston had as their guests Mrs. Mel Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Bishop.

From Portland were Mr. and Mrs. John Sprouse for their first stay at the Club with son John down from Claremont College.

Mrs. Stephens Entertains For Daughter

Mrs. Eileen Stephens entertained Friday evening at her home on Mesquite, inviting in old friends of her daughter, Helen Stephens Feagin, who flew here from Virginia last week for a short visit. She and her husband have many friends here and it was a gay and delightful occasion for the visitor, as the group talked over old times. Major Feagin was unable to accompany his wife here, due to his heavy responsibilities at Ft. Lee, Virginia.

Amazed at the growth of the Village during the past four years, Mrs. Feagin, who is a charter member of Los Compadres, is riding and golfing.

Guests invited to greet her were: Mrs. Frances Feagin, Warren and Betty Strebe, Johnny and Tani Boyle, Joe and Alice Butler, John and Lillian Westin, Ernie and Taylor Dunlevie, Adelaide Cunningham, Marjorie Pohl, Roy Randolph.

WANTED TODAY: THE SMARTEST NEW-CAR BUYERS IN CALIFORNIA

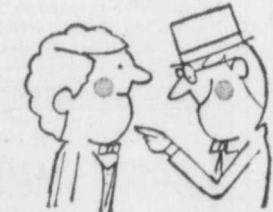

NOTICE! NO DRESSED-UP, "LOW-PRICE 3" BODY. Mercury's styling is exclusive. Other cars in the field share bodies used by lower priced cars.

TAKE A LOOK! ALL-CLEAR VISIBILITY. New windshield curves up into the roof, so you can see high traffic lights. New windshield wipers clear a 42% larger area, including the middle.

LIFT THE HOOD! GAS SAVINGS START HERE. The big economy buy is the Monterey. Its special V-8 uses regular gas, not premium - lets you "ride free" 10 miles in every 100.

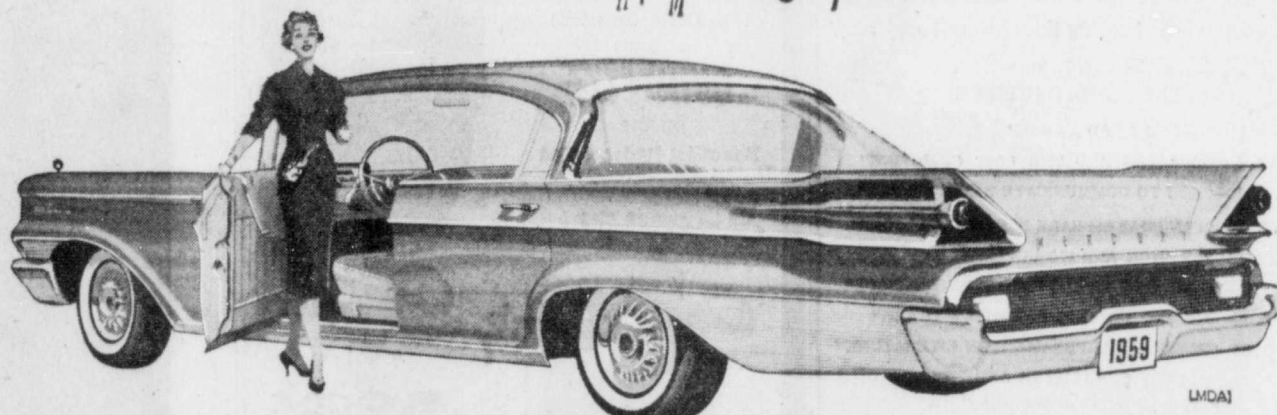

STEP IN! 6 INCHES MORE ROOM MAKES IT EASY. You don't bump your knees. Mercury's doors are the widest in any car. Windshield pillars have been moved forward out of the way.

STRETCH OUT! EVEN THE "MIDDLE MAN" HAS ROOM. Many '59 cars forget center-seat passengers, but not Mercury. Mercury has cut the hump in the floor in half for extra foot room.

GRILL OUR SALESMEN! GET ALL THE FACTS. Ask about features and economy. Look at the prices posted on every model. 2 out of every 3 new-car buyers can now afford a Mercury.

Villager Harold Beck Tells Impression of Tangier--On Round-the-World Tour

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the second of a series by Harold N. Beck, Village resident who formerly owned the Oceanside daily paper and now owns the Azusa weekly publication, detailing his impressions of an around-the-world tour.)

By HAROLD N. BECK
OFF THE COAST OF SPAIN—Much of the history of civilization has centered in the Mediterranean, which we are sailing after leaving ancient Tangier on the tip of Morocco.

Before docking in the picturesque port of the Arabic city of Tangier, we passed within a few miles of the Cape of Trafalgar where Admiral Nelson defeated the French fleet and changed the course of British and French history. We gazed upon mighty Gibraltar, symbol of the strength and power of the British empire, and then steamed from the choppy waters of the Atlantic into the tranquility of the Mediterranean.

A DAY IN TANGIER will be one long to remember for it was a day of contrasts. Most of us think of Tangier as a city of smugglers, gamblers, international spy rings, money changers and banking agencies. Of old if something contraband was desired, it could be gotten in Tangier. Today it is the meeting place of an ancient Arabic civilization of the east and the modern and progressiveness of the west. It is a Mohammedan country which only 50 years ago was barred to Christians.

Everywhere there is colorful Arabic people who refuse to accept Western dress, mingling with the latest fashions of Western civilization. Many of the women still are garbed in white with their faces veiled while others have responded to the plea of the king that ancient dress be discarded.

THERE ARE THE time-worn walls of the Casbah in the old city that stand out in mute contrast to large, modern building, luxurious hotels, cinemas, elegant cafes and tea rooms, and modern avenues with busy traffic. Men and women in some of the shops seek out a living producing products of an ancient civilization while others produce the most up to date articles in the world today.

A visit to the Casbah leaves one with mixed emotions. There you see veiled women leading heavily-laden donkeys through very narrow streets. Peddlers and beggars are everywhere and you need strong willpower to resist the pleadings of urchins (and adults alike) that you buy their products or give them money. From the small shops come the odors of what appears to be slightly spoiled food, scenting the earlier memory of fragrant blossoms of subtropical flowers you smelled while touring delightful residential sections of an interesting city.

LINING THE HIGHWAYS are women bearing huge bundles of firewood on their stooped backs. Other women prod along with a tiny baby strapped to their back as they search out wood later to be gathered. Others are working in the fields. Occasionally you sight small boys tending flocks of sheep or goats and men leading scraggy camels.

You can easily forget evidence of an old world in the beauty of the fascinating city of Tangier. The view of the Atlantic and Mediterranean with distant Gibraltar and Spain in the background is breathtaking as you stand by the old lighthouse at Cape Spartel on the furthestmost tip of the African continent. Then, from the sultan's palace in the heart of the Casbah, you revel in the panoramic view of the Straits of Gibraltar and the picturesqueness of the Tangier harbor.

BUT WHAT YOU remember most of all are the hundreds of peddlers shouting their wares. Many lined the dock as we landed and they were still bargaining up to the hour we left. They hovered, dressed in long robes and wearing fezz or hoods, over colorful Asiatic blankets covered with leather goods, brass, copper, woolen articles and costume jewelry. We were told aboard ship never to pay the first price they asked so it became a game of endurance to see who could hold out the longest in the haggling over price.

Most of the passengers either gave in gracefully or won the argument for practically every passenger left port laden with products they will probably never use and which they will wish a thousand times they had never bought.

"Pontiac with wide-track wheels is the best combination of ride... handling... performance and styling of any '59 car"—The Editors of Motor Trend Magazine

In making its annual automotive award, the staff of Motor Trend Magazine, leading automotive publication, tests and evaluates all new cars. Here are quotations from the April 1959 issue:

"The stability of the 1959 Pontiac is the outstanding automotive advance of the year. Everyone considering a new car should experience it."

"It's the best balanced passenger car in America. We firmly believe that in moving the wheels farther apart, to develop the widest stance of any American car, Pontiac has created an entirely new sense of balance and handling security."

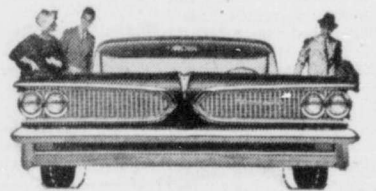

"Pontiac's lines are clean, simple and beautiful. It has a fleet look, a trim appearance. The wide wheel design contributes greatly to its over-all integrated styling. Any comparison with narrower track cars readily shows the difference."

"For the economy-minded, an efficient new engine. The new 420E Tempest economy engine offers remarkable performance along with exceptionally high mileage while operating on regular grade gasoline."

"Pontiac is again tops in performance, based on our extensive road testing. Acceleration is outstanding, yet the engine is unusually quiet and smooth."

Your nearest Pontiac dealer will be glad to let you road-test this award-winning automobile on your own. You'll see why it's the year's most talked-about car!

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car. Pontiac takes a better grip on the road, hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean disappear, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier. Handling is easier. You drive with a new confidence, a comforting security. Pontiac gives you roadability no "narrow gauge" car can offer.
